OUT &amp; BACK

Avalanche Lake

5.9 mi 757 ft 3–4 hr
 ROUND TRIP GAIN MOVING

An easy grade the whole way, following Avalanche Gorge up through old cedar and hemlock. Most people stop at the foot of the lake, 2.3 mi in, which makes a 4.6 mi day. The shore path to the head of the lake adds 0.65 mi each way and puts you under the waterfalls.

GETTING THERE &amp; BACK

- 1 Drive to the Avalanche Creek parking area on Going-to-the-Sun Road, about 16 mi past the West Entrance.
- 2 Hike out and back. The car stays at the trailhead all day.
- 3 Drive back the way you came.

ON THE WAY

- Trail of the Cedars is a 0.9 mi accessible boardwalk loop from the same trailhead. Takes about twenty minutes.
